In

Scribner's Magazine For 1894

J. M. BARRIE.

will appear

A NEW NOVEL BY J. M. BARRIE, THE AUTHOR OF "THE LITTLE MINISTER," the first novel published by him since that famous story.

There will also be begun

A NEW NOVEL BY GEORGE MEREDITH, ENTITLED "THE AMAZING MARRIAGE," a vivid and strong story in the best, simplest, and most vigorous vein of this master of English fiction.

GEORGE MEREDITH.

Among other noteworthy contents of the year will be

FRONTISPIECES SELECTED BY PHILIP GILBERT HAMERTON, who has chosen a series of contemporary paintings to illustrate the chief present tendencies of art. He will accompany each by a brief and very suggestive paper.

PHILIP GILBERT HAMERTON.

SKETCHES OF AMERICAN TYPES BY OCTAVE THANET (Miss French) A series of bright and suggestive social studies written with the author's sympathetic wit and broad knowledge —especially of the West, her home.

Moore's Wholesale Price List

OF NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES.

No. 38. WINTER. 1893-94.

TO POSTMASTERS, P. O. CLERKS AND NEWSPAPER AGENTS.

We receive subscriptions for about 2,500 leading Papers and Magazines from Agents, Postmasters and P. O. Clerks at wholesale rates for single copies; having over 8,000 Agents, who send us yearly from $10 to $200 or more each. We get from 1,000 to 5,000 subscriptions each year for many leading periodicals, and large lists for others, and can generally get lower rates than local agents get direct from publishers. In most cases, by dividing commissions with our agents, we give them better terms than they can get direct, and still make a fair profit.

The Great Advantage in ordering through us is that you can take subscriptions for any periodical, whereas if you deal direct with the publishers you would necessarily be restricted to a few leading periodicals, as it would not pay you to write for terms to all publishers.

Save Time and Money.—If you have ten periodicals to order, and should remit direct to each publisher, it would require the writing of ten letters and the stamping, sealing and addressing of ten envelopes, which is about two hours work. You can, in five minutes, easily fill out one of our ruled order sheets and envelopes (we supply them to you free on application) and order of us at a cost of only 10 cts. for postage and one Money Order; if you should send to each of the ten papers you would buy ten Money Orders, which, with the postage on ten letters, would cost you 70c., besides stationery, in addition to the higher price you would pay publishers.

Our Prices.—We believe our prices will average as low or lower than those of any other Subscription Agency. Please compare our list with others. If any Agency offers better prices on any periodical we will be pleased to duplicate their prices; simply send us their price where lower than ours, naming the Agency that makes the offer.

You Receive Receipt from us for each remittance, so that you know it has reached us safely; very few publishers send a receipt.

To Any Post Office.—At our rates you may order periodicals sent to any post-office in the United States, Canada or Mexico. Periodicals ordered sent to Foreign Countries will cost you extra postage, viz.: one cent for each two ounces weight. Your order may also have each periodical sent to a different post-office if you so desire.

Papers Not on Our List.—If you want any periodical not found on our list, write us for terms and we will give you prices. Or, if any other agency has it on their list send us their price, naming the agency, and we will fill your order, providing the list is one of recent date.

Our Location.—We are centrally located between most of the important cities. The mails arrive and depart three times each way from Brockport every day, therefore we can place your order with publishers in either direction in a very short time.

Prompt Returns.—We guarantee as prompt returns as it is possible to have, for the reason that we give orders our immediate attention as soon as received. We never allow orders to accumulate on our hands.

Few Mistakes.—We pride ourselves on the small number of mistakes that occur in this office. After your orders have been transferred to our order blanks by competent clerks, we have experienced persons carefully compare each blank with the original order that is received from you, and it is very seldom that we order wrong. We will cheerfully correct any mistakes on our part free of charge.

Wholesale Price List.—We shall issue our Wholesale Price List twice each year: About November 1st and December 1st. If you do not receive a copy soon after either of above dates, notify us and another copy will be mailed you at once.

For Agents Use Only.—This Price List is for Agents use only, and should never be shown to subscribers, as publishers desire that subscribers shall pay full price. We furnish a special circular for you to distribute among subscribers. (See next page.)

Sample Copies.—Most weekly papers costing $2 per year or less will send sample copies free. If you wish to see a copy of such send us a one cent stamp for each one wanted and we will ask the publishers to mail you a sample copy. For samples of weeklies costing over $2 a year send $\frac{1}{10}$ of the yearly subscription price. For all monthlies send $\frac{1}{12}$ of yearly price.

Our Responsibility.—We hold ourselves responsible for all money received until we have paid publishers for the full time for which you have paid us. If any publisher should fail to give proper credit notify us and we will look after the matter at once.

REFERENCES.

For reference we give the following from leading business men in Brockport, who have known us personally for a long time:

From The Sun, New York.

NEW YORK, October 24, 1890.

MR. W. H. MOORE.

Dear Sir,—We have had nothing but satisfaction in our dealings with you. Among the many subscriptions that you have sent to The Sun we have in no instance been aware of a complaint or misunderstanding of any kind.

THE SUN, New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21, 1890.

W. H. MOORE, Brockport, N. Y.

Dear Sir,—Your agency is one of the largest that forwards subscriptions to The Tribune. Your methods appear to be business-like and prompt, and I should judge that the interests of your customers are well looked after. This office has always found you reliable and responsible, and the best proof that you do business properly lies in the fact that your customers very rarely complain of delay or inaccuracies.

From Demorest's Illustrated Monthly Magazine.

NEW YORK, October 14th, 1890.

We have to congratulate you upon the success of your Subscription Agency—a success that is, no doubt, due to the business-like manner in which the Agency is conducted—for, among the many thousands of subscriptions that we have received from you, no cause of complaint has arisen. This can only be attributed to a thoroughly honest business system.

Yours truly,
W. JENNINGS DEMOREST.

AGENTS SPECIAL CIRCULARS.

No. 1 Circulars.—These are printed on fine book paper and will surpass the Circulars of most Agencies in style and quality of paper. We supply them to you free of charge if you send us stamps to prepay postage. This costs 3 cents per hundred.

Or we will send by express, free to any one who will pay Express charges on arrival at their office. 2,000 or over will generally go cheaper by express.

These circulars contain names and publisher's price of about 200 leading periodicals and a statement that you can furnish any periodical at reasonable rates. Under this statement a blank space is left in which you can insert your name with pencil or rubber stamp. (See our price for Rubber Stamp.)

We think you will do well to order enough circulars so that you can distribute them among subscribers several times. Frequent advertising of your business pays.

No. 2 Circulars.—In response to the request of many of our best Agents, who state that they desire a larger and more stylish circular than the smaller ones we have prepared a large eight-page circular, to be used in the same way as the No. 1 Circulars. The leaves of this circular are stitched and cut, thus making a handsome pamphlet.

Size of page of this Eight-Page Circular is same as our Wholesale Price List, and is printed on fine paper. The first page is reserved for a title page, with blank space at the bottom in which you can insert name and address.

The remaining seven pages contain the larger portion of all the periodicals in our Wholesale Price List, but catalogued by subjects, as Agricultural, Domestic, Democratic, Republican, etc., so that your customers can see at a glance the whole list of the particular class they may wish to select from; they state how often each periodical is published, and give publishers single subscription price only.

No. 2 Circulars free on receipt of stamps to prepay postage (15 cts. per 100), or by Express free of all charges, Agent to pay Express charges on receipt.

Order Sheets and Envelopes, with our address on, furnished free. Whenever you get out of them, let us know and we will send a new supply.

Agent's Register.—We have an Agent's Register, containing 20 pages, with space for 200 names, ruled for entering all subscriptions, including name, address, name of paper, etc. No agent should be without one of these Registers, and we will furnish one for 6 cents, which is less than the actual cost of each in 1,000 lots.

By using this you at all times have a record of subscriptions you have sent us, date sent, price received, etc.

Posters.—The size of our posters is 22 x 28 inches. They are made of manilla cardboard and have the words, "Subscriptions Received Here for all Newspapers and Magazines, &c." printed in large letters, of different colors, making them very showy. We will send you one of these posters, neatly rolled in a tube, upon receipt of a two-cent stamp to pay postage, or two of them for four cents.

Small Posters.—We also have small posters about 6x10 inches that are just the thing to post up around your town. If you will use them we will send you one-half dozen free. More at the rate of five for one cent.

Renewal Blanks.—We furnish these postpaid at 6 cents per 100. They will be found a great help in getting renewals of subscriptions that you have taken before; by referring to your record of the time subscription was sent you can advise your customers two or three weeks in advance of expiration of their subscription and be pretty sure of receiving a renewal.

Rubber Stamps and Self-Inking Pads.—For 30 cents we furnish a Rubber Stamp, and Self-Inking Pad (see below) with which you can neatly print your name and address on the Special Circulars, or any other circular. For 35 cents we furnish a Stamp of three to five lines, with Self-Inking Pad. For 50 cents we furnish a larger Stamp, with Pad, than either of above, with which you can print your business card of from 3 to 5 lines. The 30 or 35 cent stamp is more suitable for the No. 1 Circlars.

Self-Inking Pads.—These Pads are always ready for use, and do not require Ink. You will be pleased with them. They are 2¼ by 3½ inches in size, and are first class in every respect. If you wish one of these Pads without Stamp, we will furnish at 20 cents.

Postage Stamps.—We accept postage stamps (1 or 2 cent) for small amounts, but do not send stamps of large denominations.

Deposits.—Those who wish can deposit $5 to $100, or more, with us, and then send in their orders by postal card every day, thus saving cost of Money Order or Draft. We keep an exact record of your account and ask you to do the same. We return any balance you may have with us at any time you desire it. We will also, at your request, send you a written statement of account at any time except during the rush, through December and January, when our time is so limited we cannot take time to write one out.

When to Begin.—Always state time you wish periodicals to begin. With few exceptions we can have subscriptions begin at any time you may desire.

New or Renewals.—Always state whether new or renewal, and if a renewal, state time it is to renew from if possible. Mark new subs "New" and renewal subs "Ren."

Failures of Publishers.—We do not consider ourselves responsible for the failures of publishers. If a paper or magazine discontinues publication before a subscription expires, and the publisher will not return the unearned money, the subscriber must be the loser the same as if he ordered directly from the publishers. Such a case seldom occurs, as we are careful to have only responsible publications on our list. If anyone should know of one that is not reliable, we hope they will inform us, so that we may drop it.

Changes in Price.—In case publishers change their prices to us, our prices will be changed at once to correspond. If the price to agents has been reduced by the publisher before the subscription is received by us, we will credit or pay back the amount overpaid. If the price has been raised, we will order paper for time paid for, or we will refund the money paid, as desired.

Missing Numbers.—In most cases the mails are to blame for these. For all such we would advise the subscriber to write direct to the publishers (to save time) and they will nearly always send a duplicate. If they do not send it let us know.

Complaints.—If, for any reason, you have to complain about some periodical, please write us full particulars, such as name of periodical, name of subscriber, date of your order, how you remitted, and also date on the receipt card that you received from us. If you will do this we can easily look the matter up, and will do so at once. We do not always write you on receipt of a complaint as it is unnecessary and takes valuable time, especially during the rush through December and January. Do not write complaints on same sheet with an order for periodicals, as each one goes to a different department.

Premiums, Extra Numbers, &c.—If a publisher charges extra for these add the extra amount to our wholesale price. Most publishers that offer premiums and extra numbers free will allow us to do the same. A few will not allow any discount on paper with premium.

Incorrect Price.—Publishers are liable to change the price of a periodical at any time. It sometimes happens we do not receive their notice. Therefore, if any one knows of an instance where we have the price to subscribers too high or too low and will inform us, we will pay the first one who does this 10 cents for his trouble.

Discontinued.—If any one should learn that some periodical on our list has been discontinued and will notify us, we will pay the one sending us the first notice 25 cents for his trouble.

Our Terms.—Remittance must come with each order unless you have a deposit with us. (See Deposits.)

HOW TO REMIT.

By Bank Draft on any large city.

By Post Office Money Order.
(Brockport is an International M. O. Office.)

By any Express Co's Money Order.

Ask your Postmaster to be sure not to make Money Orders payable on Rockport, N. Y., Brocton, N. Y., Brocton, Mass., Brooklyn, N. Y., or New York, as is very often done by mistake, but on Brockport, Monroe Co., N. Y.

Registered Letters.—Do not remit by this method if you can procure either of the above, as it takes registered letters a longer time to reach us.

Postal Notes, Bills, Silver and Stamps, in ordinary letters are at the sender's risk, but are seldom lost if letters are properly sealed and addressed.

Checks on Country Banks.—Do not remit by checks on banks in small cities and towns outside of N. Y., Mass., Conn., R. I. and Del., unless you add 5 cents extra to pay part of the collection fees.

Have all remittances payable to

Mark Twain

MARK TWAIN.

has written two great stories which The Century Co. has bought for serial publication in The Century Magazine and St. Nicholas for Young Folks in 1894.

"Pudd'nhead Wilson,"

which begins in the December

like several of Mark Twain's stories, has for its scene a steamboat town on the Mississippi River forty years ago. It is the most dramatic novel that Mark Twain has ever written. The story begins in December and will run through six or seven numbers.

For Boys and Girls Mark Twain has written

which will appear in

ST. NICHOLAS FOR YOUNG FOLKS.

In this story Mark Twain's great boy characters, "Tom Sawyer" and "Huckleberry Finn," with their faithful companion the negro Jim, visit the eastern hemisphere,—not in the ordinary way, but accidentally, as it were, and in a flying-machine.

THE CENTURY In 1894.

In addition to Mark Twain's novel, "Pudd'nhead Wilson," mentioned above, the program of THE CENTURY for 1894 includes a great multitude of attractions, many of which cannot be definitely announced as this catalogue goes to press. Subscribers, however, may count on receiving the best short stories, the best essays on timely topics, novelettes by Charles Egbert Craddock and other well-known writers, hitherto unpublished work by Lowell and Emerson, memories and letters of Edwin Booth, papers on American artists' adventures, and on the hunting of fierce game; "Tramping with Tramps," a notable series descriptive of vagabond life in this country and in Europe; important papers on music, etc., and the finest illustrations of any periodical in the world. New subscribers should begin with the November number, the first of the new volume. Price, $4.00 a year.

ST. NICHOLAS In 1894.

With the number for November, 1893, ST. NICHOLAS, "the greatest of children's magazines," celebrates its twenty-first birthday by appearing in enlarged form, having absorbed "Wide Awake," the popular Boston magazine for young folks. Besides the serial story, "Tom Sawyer Abroad," by Mark Twain, mentioned above, ST. NICHOLAS will print during the year a series of stories of India by Rudyard Kipling, papers on "American authors" by Brander Matthews, "Recollections of Wild Life" by Dr. Charles Eastman, a full-blooded Sioux Indian; serial stories by the author of "Lady Jane," by James Otis and others; articles on the government of the United States, army and navy life, how money is made, etc., etc. ST. NICHOLAS is "king of all publications for the young" and everything in it is illustrated. Try it for a year, beginning with the November number. Price, $3.00.

Both THE CENTURY and ST. NICHOLAS FOR YOUNG FOLKS are published by

ILLUSTRATED ◎ LONDON ◎ NEWS

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Beginning with the issue of October 28, '93 the complete London edition of the Celebrated ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS will be substituted in future, and issued in New York, for what is now known as the "American Edition," or "The Illustrated News of the World,"

The enterprise of the London publishers in thus placing before the general public their famous publication entire, will surely be appreciated by Americans, as well as Englishmen living in America and Canada, and a large increase in sales, etc. is expected.

Notwithstanding the much heavier expense involved in making this desirable and important change, the retail price for regular numbers will only be advanced to 15 CENTS A COPY.

Subscriptions will be received for $6.00 a year, without extras, or $7.00 a year if the attractive Christmas and Mid-summer numbers are added. Concerning the paper, very little requires to be said. It is the oldest Illustrated Weekly published in the world, having been established at London in 1842.

The character of the publication needs no commendation—its record is among those things which are established. Its circulation among the very best people everywhere is an evidence of the high literary and artistic standard.

Subscriptions received by reliable agencies and at the New York office, World Building, City Hall Park.

REST, RECREATION and SPORT.

A WELL-KNOWN sporting writer has said, "As an average, the summer outer who goes to the forest, lake or stream for health and sport, gets about ten cents' worth for a dollar of outlay." Not so with "OUTING." Thousands enjoy a 12-months' outing for $3.00 and consider their money well invested. Be one of them.

BUSY MEN read it for relaxation.

COLLEGE MEN make it a hand-book, for it comes in closer touch with them than any other publication.

COLLEGE GRADUATES find it a pleasant reminder of college days, and following its precepts keep good health in attendance.

THE SPORTING ENTHUSIAST files it away as a record of the doings in his particular line of sport.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS pronounce it the BEST because of its pure and healthful influence, and are especially interested in the department of FICTION, which lends additional attraction and gives "OUTING" first place about the family-hearth and in the reading-room.

"In no way can Americans so effectively inform themselves on the subjects that claim public attention from one month to another as by reading the NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW."

IN THE

North American Review

YOU WILL ALWAYS FIND THE

The Topics are always those which are uppermost in the public mind —in morals, politics, science, literature, religion, business, finance, industrial economy, social and municipal affairs, etc.—in short, all subjects on which Americans require and desire to be informed. No magazine follows so closely from month to month the course of public interest. All subjects are treated of impartially on both sides.

The Contributors to the REVIEW are the men and women to whom the world looks for the most authorative statements on the subjects of the day. No other periodical can point to such a succession of distinguished writers. The list is a roll of the people who are making the history, controlling the affairs and leading the opinion of of the age, such as Mr. Gladstone, the Prime Minister of England; Signor Crispi, Ex-Prime Minister of Italy; Baron Hirsh; H. R. H., the Count of Paris; Cardinal Gibbons; Bishops Potter, Doane, Mallalieu, Foss, etc., etc.

The Time when these subjects are treated of by these contributors is the very time when the subjects are in the public mind– not a month or two after people have ceased to think of them. The promptness with which the REVIEW furnishes its readers with the most authoritative information upon the topics of the day is one of its most valuable features.

THE COSMOPOLITAN.

THE radical step which marked the change in price of THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE from $3.00 to $1.50 a year was the result of an intention long since formed to give the public a magazine of the highest class at such a price as must bring it within the reach of all persons of intellectual tastes however limited their incomes. This reduction in price took effect with the July '93 number and since that date the history of the magazine has been a series of phenomenal increases in circulation never before attained in the history of magazine literature. The December '93 edition reaches over 300,000 copies and the year 1894 promises to be the most brilliant in the history of the magazine. It is believed that the new price, in connection with broader plans and greater facilities tending to better each number of the Cosmopolitan, will bring the magazine within easy reach of a million buyers.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES.

WITH RETAIL PRICE LIST AND OUR WHOLESALE PRICE FOR 1894.

Agents' Commission.—The difference between price in second column and the price you charge customers will be your commission.

This price list supercedes all previous ones; order from this after December 1st, 1893.

Agents, Booksellers, Postmasters, Assistant Postmasters, and Publishers are authorized to remit to us at our wholesale prices. Where we have no agent, any person receiving this List can act as such.

Weekly newspapers are designated by the letter "w." following the name; Dailies, "6 issues" or "7 issues"; Tri-Weeklies, "t. w."; Semi-Weeklies, "s. w."; Bi-Monthlies, "b. m."; Quarterlies, "q."

We receive subscriptions at any time in the year, and publications can, in most cases, commence at any date desired.

Prices quoted in this list are for yearly subscriptions and include prepayment of postage by the publishers.

For three or six months subscriptions add ten cents to one-fourth or one-half of the agents' price for one year except on a few mentioned in list, which do not receive subscriptions for less than one year at agents' rates.

Prices are same to agents for renewal and new subscriptions when not otherwise specified in the list.

Papers in this List preceded by a star () are papers that allow no commission to us; we charge five cents extra to pay cost of sending check to publishers, and our agents should charge five cents more than our price to compensate them for the trouble. It would cost subscriber 10 cents for Money Order, Draft or Register, and postage stamp if he sent direct to publisher himself.

All periodicals are sent from office of publication to subscribers. We do not handle the papers..

The word "Ask" in agent's price list, indicates that agents' price will be sent on application.

Prices Subject to Publishers' Changes.

THE ART INTERCHANGE MONTHLY MAGAZINE

We call the particular attention of our agents to this handsome magazine. It is the best and most reliable of its class and no home is complete without it. The departments embrace the most valuable and practical information and instruction on all matters pertaining to Home Decoration, as well as ALL branches of art. The illustrations are of the highest grade and there are given innumerable designs, full size, for all kinds of home art work, and plans of house interiors and exteriors. In addition there are given, with a yearly subscription, thirty-six superb colored pictures and twenty-four art work design supplements—in all sixty supplements during the year.

For the year 1894 the publishers have secured at enormous expense, the sole control of the Edition de Luxe of a regal work of art entitled which they will present free to everyone who subscribes direct for a full year at $4.00. This work of art is worth $10.00 and can be had in no other way, but WE have completed arrangements with the publishers by which we can offer to OUR customers equal inducements and at the same time a liberal commission to our agents. Every subscriber you secure will receive this exquisite art treasure, the same as though the subscription price were sent direct to the publishers.

PICTURESQUE VENICE is library size, 12x13 inches, and contains beautiful illustrations in color, showing the chief features of interest that have drawn travelers for centuries to the historic city of Venice; its watery highways, lined with churches and palaces of rare architectural beauty; its arched bridges; its Arsenal; its Piazza, the theatre of a long historic drama; the needle-like campanile reaching skywards; the wonderful St. Mark's, of indescribable beauty and unique among the architectural creations of the world; its balconies and barges; its gondolas and gonfalons; in short, all of the rare combinations which make Venice what it is.

The descriptive text, embellished with relief initials, deals with the history, poetry and traditions of the city from its founding down to our own century, and recounts picturesque and dramatic incidents that have taken place and whose memory clings to the city. The book is printed on the finest quality of heavy paper, and with wide margins, making an exquisite work for the library table. The pictures, in color of exquisite softness and finish, on heaviest and finest of plate paper, are loose and may be used for framing if desired, each one being a work of art in itself. The whole work is encased in a handsome gold relief cover, of beautiful design and workmanship.

With this inducement you should have no difficulty in securing a large number of subscriptions and we would suggest that, to further aid you, you send us 50 cents for a copy of the work which you can show to your customers. You could deliver your copy to the subscriber, if desired, and the publisher will supply you with another on your stating the fact when sending us your order. This is an unusually liberal offer and we would recommend all our agents to devote much attention to the Art Interchange during the season of 1893 and 1894 as it will mean big profit and pleasant work. A supply of numbered subscription blanks and full descriptive circular of Picturesque Venice will be sent on application to our office. An outfit consisting of "Picturesque Venice," a copy of the magazine with three colored pictures and a supply of descriptive circulars will be furnished for 70 cents. This would prove of great assistance in your work.

OUTING

This highly interesting Illustrated Monthly Magazine devoted to Sport, Travel and Recreation is, if anything, more beautiful and instructive than ever before, and has acquired a leading position among the illustrated magazines of the day. It is not as some have supposed, devoted only to out-door sports, but is a first-class high grade literary magazine, and well fills the place for anyone wishing to subscribe for a good magazine.

WE OFFER OUR AGENTS

for new subscriptions a commission of 80 Cents a year, making net price $2.20 per year, or if three new subscriptions are sent us at $3.00 each we will give a fourth copy free which may be a renewal, or we will furnish five subscriptions all to be strictly new at $2.00 each, thus allowing the agent $1.00 each. We offer this large commission to our agents as a special inducement for extra work and it should not be divided with subscribers. We also offer to the agents sending us the most new subscriptions to OUTING, to reach us before April 10th, 1894,

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS CASH,

As Follows:

First Largest List	$20 00
Second Largest List	5 00

It is not likely that it will take more than ten (10) new subscriptions to win first prize of $20.00. So sure are we that it will not, that we will give to every agent sending Ten (10) New Subscriptions $10.00 in cash additional, providing he or she fails to win first prize of $20.00. As you pay us only $2.00 each for each new subscription in clubs of five or more, ten subscriptions are sure not to cost you over $1.00 each net, and we think that you will get the full $20.00 back in first prize, thus making a clean profit of $30.00, including the $1.00 commission in cash. It Cannot be less than $20.00 according to our offer. We believe that any good canvasser who tries can obtain five to ten subscriptions to OUTING in a two day's canvass. But very few will attempt it however, and therein lies the chance of success for whoever does so.

SAMPLE COPY for canvassing purposes sent free.

W. H. MOORE, BROCKPORT, N. Y.

CASH PREMIUMS,

LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

We offer a very liberal cash commission, particulars of which we send on application, (the publishers requesting us not to print same in this catalogue). We offer also the following CASH PRIZES for largest lists of yearly subscribers to Ladies' Home Journal sent to Reach Us by February 15th, 1894.

1 85	*Youth's Companion, Boston (renewals or transfers (see page 9) .....w	Juv..	1	80
1 75	Youth's Companion (see note below)..w	Juv..	1	35

New Subscribers to Youth's Companion received after November 1st will receive paper to Jan. 1st free.

Youth's Companion publishers will not accept a transfer from one member to another of same family as new. Therefore, do not send us $1.35 for transfers or renewals; if you do we will have to charge you, in addition to the difference in price, 10 cents extra to pay us for the extra expense in settling with the publishers.

We do not furnish Youth's Companion premiums. Agents must pay me $1.75 for their own sub.

Our list of periodicals published in Germany, France, Spain, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Norway, Italy, Russia, Austria, Asia and Africa—some 400 in all—we have not room for in this Catalogue. We have made up a separate list of above, which will be sent to any Agent wishing it, upon application by postal card.

BRITISH PERIODICALS.

The prices here given cover both American and Foreign postage to any point in the United States or Canada. Any British periodical not on this list furnished at correspondingly low rates. The first numbers may be expected in from five to eight weeks. Six months' subscriptions 15 per cent. higher. No subscriptions for British Periodicals received for less than 6 months.

Agents will please state exact time to begin all British Periodicals.

Do not mark "renewal."

AMERICA'S HISTORIC LITERARY MAGAZINE

Atlantic Monthly

FOR 1894.

Will contain a new Serial to run through twelve numbers, entitled

PHILIP AND HIS WIFE,

By Mrs. MARGARET DELAND

Author of

"John Ward, Preacher."

Fiction Without giving undue prominence to fiction. The Atlantic will give, besides its serial novels, notable single-number stories. It will constantly bring to the front hitherto unknown writers of ability.

Poetry From the beginning The Atlantic has been celebrated for its poetry. Not quantity but quality is studied, and though each number may have but one or two pieces, those pieces will always be found of a high order of merit.

Nature Mrs. Miller. Mr. Bolles, Mr. John Burroughs, Mr. Bradford Torrey, are well known students of nature and graphic writers whose contributions appear frequently in The Atlantic.

Biography The Atlantic gives special attention to studies in Biography. Mr. Schurz's famous article on Lincoln, Mr. Ropes's study of General Sherman, Mr. James C. Carter's paper on Tilden, Mr. S. S. Roger's on George William Curtis, are among the most striking contributions to magazine literature of late years. These all appeared in The Atlantic. Future numbers will contain papers on George Bancroft by W. J. Sloane, John Esten Cooke and Philip Pendleton Cooke by Thomas Nelson Page, Joseph Henry by T. C. Mendenhall, and others.

It is impossible to enumerate the many departments of literature which The Atlantic touches, but in a word, it aims to represent the tastes and interests of educated Americans, who want the best literature, the most thoughtful discussion of current affairs, the most discriminating criticism, and the most suggestive treatment of fresh topics. As a critic said of a late number, "The Atlantic has a hold upon the hearts of cultivated readers which makes it a necessity of the intellectual life."

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The magnificent success which has brought this magazine so quickly to the very foremost rank of high class periodicals continues without interruption. Everyone who reads it says, like Mr. Edward Bok, that "it is indispensable." It will be more valuable than ever during 1893-4. It has the immense advantage of having no rivals. No matter which of the other magazines a customer takes, or how many of them, he must have the REVIEW OF REVIEWS too. The trade find that they only have to show people what the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is to sell it immediately. We want active men and they cannot do better than to send for our terms.

THE MEDICAL NEWS

Is the leading MEDICAL NEWSPAPER of the country. It has been published fifty-one years at Philadelphia, and costs $4.00 per annum in advance, $1.00 less than is charged by other medical weeklies and doctors want to save a dollar when they can, especially now. It has a large circulation in every state in the Union, yet only one doctor in every fifteen takes it.

ONE DOCTOR IN EVERY TEN OUGHT TO.

If you will get your family physician to subscribe for 1894 we will pay you a dollar. Call on the other doctors in your town systematically and get them to subscribe too. Every new subscriber means a dollar in your pocket—easily earned.

This offer holds good until February 1st, 1894, and not a day longer. Hitherto we have never paid more than 20 cents for new subscriptions. A new subscriber is one who did not take during 1893. We don't intend to pay for renewals. Our list price must not under any circumstances be cut.

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF THE MEDICAL SCIENCES

The above remarks apply to THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF THE MEDICAL SCIENCES also. It is a monthly periodical; the oldest medical journal on this continent; every doctor knows all about it. Costs $4.00. When taken with the MEDICAL NEWS the price for both is $7.50. The double order means $2.00 to you.

We will send the issues from date of subscription to end of '93 FREE. We will send you specimen copies and a circular giving you "points," if you write us a postal. Address,

MANAGER PERIODICAL DEP'T, LEA BROTHERS & CO.,

706, 708, 710 SANSOM ST., PHILADELPHIA.

Current Literature

Is the popular monthly magazine of contemporary record, devoted exclusively to the literature and the events of the day. No magazine has ever reviewed the field so thoroughly or in so popular a way. It gathers from the literary treasures of the day the things worth preserving, in prose and poetry, and arranges them attractively in thirty or more departments.

Beginning with the January (1894) number it will be increased in size. Every member of the family is interested in it. It should be in every home.

F. MARION CRAWFORD AND EDWIN L. WEEKS, the celebrated painter, have co-operated in two articles on Constantinople, having visited the Turkish capital for this purpose, at the request of the Magazine.

F. MARION CRAWFORD.

IN PIRATICAL SEAS

is the title of a narrative which one reader said reads like a "true Treasure Island." It is the narrative of Peter Grotjans, a Philadelphia merchant in the beginning of the century, written for his children, and extends through several numbers.

FOUR ARTICLES ON NEWPORT, LENOX, BAR HARBOR, AND THE NORTH SHORE OF MASSACHUSETTS will form a group of the cleverest American social studies, by four bright authors and artists working in co-operation.

FOUR ARTICLES ON THE DOMESTICATED ANIMALS, BY PROFESSOR SHALER, on the Dog, the Horse, Beasts of Burden, and Domesticated Birds, the illustrations of which by distinguished masters of animal drawing will be a feature of the year.

OUT OF DOOR ARTICLES

will be abundant; notably, one on Mountaineering among the chief peaks of Europe, written and illustrated by Edwin L. Weeks, the painter, and one on Game Fishes by Doctor Yale and Ernest Thompson.

SHORT FICTION

will be as always a feature of the year, including stories extending over more than one number by W. D. Howells, W. H. Bishop, and Miss Elliott, the author of "Jerry," and stories by Ludovic Halévy, Joel Chandler Harris, Paul Bourget, Thomas Nelson Page, and many new writers.

No opportunity will be lost to bring into the magazine the best, most brilliant and attractive literature and art of the time. A subscription means over 1,500 pages of the best reading and illustration.

Price, $3.00; 25 Cents a Number.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Readers whose subscriptions expire with the present number are respectfully requested to send their renewals at an early day, in order that the magazine may be mailed regularly and that their names may not be removed from the list.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, Publishers,

743 & 745 Broadway, New York.

☞ See Last Cover Page for Contents of Christmas Number.

The Christmas Number of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE will be in many ways an issue of special attractiveness. It is light and entertaining, and beautifully illustrated, a novelty being sixteen pages of illustrations printed with a tint to suggest the delicate material of the sculptures of Della Robbia.

THE FRONTISPIECE will be a drawing by Weguelin, engraved by Frank French, which with other pictures by Weguelin will illustrate an allegorical story, "The Source," by Dr. Henry van Dyke.

A BACHELOR'S CHRISTMAS, an unusually attractive story, full of sentiment and good will, by Robert Grant, the author of "The Reflections of a Married Man," will be elaborately illustrated by Irving R. Wiles.

CONSTANTINOPLE will be an article by F. Marion Crawford, author of "Paul Patoff," illustrated by Edwin L. Weeks, both of whom made a journey to the Turkish capital especially to prepare this article.

THE SEMAPHORE, a railroad story by Herbert D. Ward, illustrated by A. B. Frost.

AN ARTIST AMONG ANIMALS, a charming article, elaborately illustrated by the author, F. S. Church, the great animal painter, who for many years has made a study of the habits of wild and domestic animals.

SONG BY GILCHRIST, entitled "January and May," is decorated and illustrated by Howard Pyle.

THE FULNESS OF LIFE, a clever and fanciful bit of satire, by Edith Wharton.

A SEARCH FOR DELLA ROBBIAS in Italy is the title of an article by Allan Marquand, who has industriously studied the subject and made important discoveries; illustrated in tint from his unequalled collection of photographs.

AN UNPUBLISHED WORK OF SIR WALTER SCOTT: Private Letters of King James's Reign will be printed with an introduction by Andrew Lang.

Lockhart says that, in 1821, Scott "amused some leisure hours with writing a series of 'Private Letters,' supposed to have been discovered in the repositories of a noble English family, and giving a picture of manners in town and country in the early part of the reign of James I." When a considerable number had been finished, Lockhart, Erskine, and James Ballantyne told Scott that he was throwing away in those letters the materials of as good a romance as he had ever penned. Scott listened to this advice, put the letters aside, and afterward used much of the material in "The Fortunes of Nigel." The whole text of the letters has been discovered at Abbotsford, and nearly all is here published by arrangement with Mrs. Maxwell-Scott, introduced and edited by Andrew Lang.

THE NUMBER will also contain other articles which cannot now be announced.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS it will be seen are particularly elaborate, there being twenty full pages and forty text illustrations.

Price, 25 Cents.
